

PrintClose

Independent Agents

Home Independent Agents

Why You Should Consider an Independent Agent

Some people think it doesn't really matter where they buy their insurance, but when making such an important purchase, it's important to know all your options. Learn why working with an independent agent can help you find the best combination of price, coverage, and service.

How We Work with Independent Agents

We know you have many choices when it comes to protecting the things that are important to you. That's why Liberty Mutual believes it's important to give you the choice in how you'd like to do business with us. One way we offer our products and services is through professionally licensed independent agents. Find out how we work with independent agents and what it means for you.

What We Offer

Through our independent agents network, we offer a variety of competitive and flexible commercial and personal insurance products and services. Learn more about how our products and services can best meet the unique needs of your family or your business.

Our Companies
